AP
2
.A332
V. 2
1877

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

PAGE

THE LIBERALISTIC VIEW OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOL QUESTION. By Rev. P. Bayma, S. J., ... 1

Mr. Abbot's Lecture in answer to Bishop McQuaid, 1; The Index, 2; American Principles, 3; What is "Sectional," 5; The Secularists are Sectarians, 6; Levelling up and levelling down, 10; The Catholic protest, 12; The public school question, 14; The Church's position, 17; The question of cost, 19; The higher education, 20; A threat of persecution, 21: The Catholic conscience, 25; Mr. Abbot's arguments disproved, 26; The verdict of impartial men, 29.

PANTHEISTIC THEORIES OF SOUL. By Prof. F. A. Paley, ... 30

Greek and Roman ideas of the soul, 30; Opinions of Plato, Aristotle, Cicero, and other philosophers, 32–37; A specimen of ancient reasoning, 38; The four elements, 39–41; Immortality of the soul, 42; Spirits of the air, 44; Attributes of the soul, 48; The future life, 50.

THE BISMARCK OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. By S. J. A., . . . 51

The morning of All Saints Day, 1755, 51; Two men of note, 52; History of Pombal, 52· Portugal in the eighteenth century, 54–56; The Jesuits in Portugal, 56; The revolution and its opponents, 58; The mission of races, 60, 61; Plots of Pombal, 63; The Jesuits in Paraguay, 64; Character sketches, 68–71; Expulsion of the Jesuits, 74; The Jesuits accused of treason, 75; The trial and death of Malagrida, 76; Banishment of the Jesuits, 77; Their reception in Rome, 77; The decay of Portugal, 78; Pombal as a type of statesmen, 79; The Jesuits in France, 79; The explosion, 80; The election of Clement XIV., 81; Ganganelli and his character, 82; Their suppression, 83; The fall and the rise of the Jesuits, 83.

SYMBOLISM OF THE COSMOS. By Brother Azarias, ... 84

The new faith of Strauss, 84; Herbert Spencer's Cosmogony, 85; The author's synthetic formula, 86; Tennyson's philosophy, 88; The symbolism of government, 89; The Cosmos a symbol to God, 90; Its clue, 91; Origin of mythology, 93; Harmony of the Cosmos, 95; Rise of nature-worship, 97; Its perversion, 99; Egyptian symbolism, 100.

FASHIONS AND PRINCIPLES IN POETRY. By M. F. S., ... 102

Modern poetry, 102; Ancient poetry, 103; The Iliad, 103; "Deirdré," 106; Merits of Dr. Joyce's poem, 108; Its plot, 108; Examples of its style, 111; Boyle O'Reilly's poems, 113; Battles in "Deirdré," 115; "Songs in the Night," 118; Art, music, and poetry in the sanctuary, 119; Examples of the "Songs," 120.

CAN THE IMMATERIALITY, SPIRITUALITY, AND IMMORTALITY OF THE HUMAN SOUL BE DEMONSTRATED? By Rev. Walter H. Hill, S. J., 123

Opinions of Christian philosophers, 123; Definition of "immaterial," 125; The powers of matter, 128; Connection of ideas with the intellect, 131; Intellect and will in man, 132; Proofs of immortality, 134; Aspirations and rewards of the soul, 136; Materialistic theories, 137; The doctrine of "forces," 139; Study of physiology, 142.

A PARTISAN ASSAULT UPON THE CATHOLIC CHURCH. By George Dering Wolff, ... 144

Washington's address, 144; Attempted anti-Catholic movement, 145; Catholics in politics, 146; Secret attacks on the Catholics, 147; Charged with a Democratic alliance, 149, 150; The German persecution, 151; Relations between the Church and temporal States, 152; Temporal power of the Pope, 153; Supreme spiritual authority of the Church, 154; Protestant testimonies, 155–159; The deposing power, 160; Its exercise and conditions, 161–164; The Vatican decrees, 165; Outrages of the German government, 169.

THE CHURCH AND THE PRINCES OF EUROPE. By Rev. Aug. J. Thebaud, S. J., ... 193

The decline of the Church's influence and its cause, 193; St. Augustine's "Two Cities," 194; The Church as the City of God, 197; The opposition she experiences, 197; Its causes, 198; The Church and the Roman Empire, 201; Germany, 202; Charlemagne and the Saxon line, 204; Investitures, 205; Guelphs and Ghibellines, 209; England and the Church, 210; St. Thomas a'Becket, 214; France, 214; Boniface VIII. and Philip II., 216; Spain and Italy, 219; The great Pontiffs, 220; Factions of the tenth century, 222; The great schism and the sixteenth century heresies, 224.

PAGE

WHAT THE UNITED STATES OWES TO JAMES II. By JohnGilmary Shea, 226

James II. in history, 226; Early annals of New York, 227; Life of James, Duke of York, 228; English and French interests in America, 229; Capture of New Amsterdam, 230; The Duke's administration, 231; The Jesuits in New York, 233; James' statesmanship, 233-235; Project of colonial union, 236; A "Greater" Britain, 238; Liberty of conscience, 239.

THE LIBERALISTIC VIEW OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOL QUESTION—SECOND ARTICLE. By Rev. P. Bayma, S. J., ... 240

Claim of the Catholic conscience, 241; Equality of rights, 243; Non-interference, 244; Refutation of Mr. Abbot's assertions, 245; The question of taxation, 248; Parental prerogatives, 251; Quibbles of Mr. Abbot, 253; Answers, 254-255; A so-called relic of barbarism, 256; Sir Henry Maine's ideas, 257; The Catholic doctrine of parental right, 260; A "Stalking-horse of the Pope," 262; The jaws of the State, 263; The Church and parental rights, 265; The Catholic conscience, 267-269; A final challenge, 270.

LAST SUMMER'S EXPEDITION AGAINST THE SIOUX AND ITS GREAT CATASTROPHE. By General John Gibbon, U. S. A., ... 271

The Great American Desert, 271; Sioux depredations, 273; Expeditions against them, 274; Indian interpreters, 276; The guides, 278; Pompey's Pillar, 279; At Fort Pease, 282; On the Rosebud, 284; Hardships of the campaign, 285-288; Steamers on the Yellowstone, 289; Meeting with Custer, 291; Expedition planned, 292; The "Far West," 294; Bad news, 295; To the rescue, 297; A bloody scene, 299; Custer's fate, 303.

THE RED MAN GAUGED BY HIS SPEECH. By Rev. Edward Jacker, . . 304

The Algonquin speech, 305; Its dialects, 307; Lengthy syllables, 308; A bunch of ideas, 312; An example, 313; Bancroft on Indian dialects, 317; English and Ojibwa, 319; Examples of Algonquin and Ojibwa dialects, 320; Causes of early mistakes on the Indian dialects, 321; Examples in point, 322; Some of Bancroft's conclusions from these errors, 323; The capacity of the Indian as guaged by his tongue, 324.

SCHULTE'S ROMAN CATHOLICISM: THE PLEA OF AN APOSTATE. By Very Rev. James A. Corcoran, D.D., ... 325

The Apostate's formula, 325; A striking contrast, 326; The meaning and sin of apostasy, 328; Dr. Schulte's plunge, 332; The Church and the Bible, 333; The Old Testament, 334; The Apostles and their successors, 336; The great commission, 338; Testimonies of the early fathers, 341; Sts. Irenæus, Cyprian, and Jerome, 343; The Bible as a rule of faith, 343; Many Bible students infidels, 345.

THE IMMORTALITY OF THE SOUL—An Answer to a Correspondent. By Very Rev. James A. Corcoran, D.D., ... 347

The welcome extended to the Quarterly, 347; Some criticisms, 347; The objection to Prof. Paley's article, 348; The decisions of the Holy See on the spirituality of the soul proved by reason, 348; The decree, 349; The primitive natural truths, 349; The traditionalists, 350; Their advocates, 350; The controversy, 350; The exactness of the definition, 350; Conclusions from propositions, 351; Bellarmine's statements, 352; The immortality of the soul, 353; The arguments for it from reason, 353; Muzzarelli's opinion, 354; Casto Ansaldi, 355; Duns Scotus, 356; Suarez, 356; The opinions of Prof. Paley, 357; Fenelon, 357; Preachers of the middle ages, 357.

THE ENGLISH IN THEIR CONTINENTAL HOMESTEAD. By Bro. Azarias, 385

Taine as a critic, 385; The English in Schleswig-Holstein, 387; The country, 389; Government, 391; Punishments, 393; Laws, 395; Warlike character, 397; Condition of the women, 398; The homes, 403; Language, 404; Beowulf, 407; Philosophy, 412; Their opinion of good and evil, 412; Of the heavens and the earth, 413; Of the Tree of Life, 414; Of nature and spirit, 416; And of good and evil, 416; The Infant Child, 417.

THE FRAMEWORK OF SOCIETY. By R. S. G., ... 417

The harmony of nature, 417; Civil society defined, 419; The "social contract," 421; The scholastic view, 422; The sphere of civil society, 424; Religion in society, 426; Religion as a bond of unity, 427; It is essential to society, 428; The absence of religious unity a misfortune, 428; Causes of American toleration, 428.

THE CHURCH AND THE STATE. The Two "Cities" in the Present Age. By Rev. Aug. J. Thebaud, S. J., ... 430

Separation of Church and State, 430; The Church as the City of God, 431; Her holiness, 433; Her evil children, 435; Her universality, 437; Her increase, 439; Her unity, 441; The modern State, 444; Education, 448; Nationalism, 449; Modern Atheism, 452; Modern politics, 454; Socialism and the Commune, 456; God's designs, 458.

THE RUINS OF EPHESUS. By Prof. F. A. Paley, ... 460

The Ephesian Diana's Temple, 460; The ancient accounts, 461; Mr. Wood's explorations, 462; The site discovered, 464; Its dimensions, 467; History of the temple, 469; Its magnificence, 471; Other edifices, 472; The tomb of St. Luke, 472; The odeum, 472; The stadium, 473; The town hall, 473; The inscriptions discovered, 473; an ancient law document, 474.

PAGE

THE BLUE LAWS OF CONNECTICUT. By John Gilmary Shea, ... 475

Writers on the laws, 475; Underlying principles, 477; The religious laws of Connecticut, 479; Their oddity, 481; New Haven enactments, 482; On Quakers, 485; On Catholics, 486; The Sunday law, 487; Education, 488; A State Church, 489; The Episcopalians, 492; Marriages, 493; Peters's exaggerations, 494; The religious laws of other Colonies, 495; Their general intolerance, 496; English severity, 496; The character of New England, 497.

MR. R. W. THOMPSON ON THE PAPACY AND THE CIVIL POWER. By S. B. A. Harper, ... 498

Superficiality of the age, 498; Protestant intolerance, 500; Mr. Thompson's claim, 505; His idea of infallibility, 507; His notions on history, 511; His authorities, 513; The "personality" of the Pope, 515; Misrepresentations of Mr. Thompson, 519; Schlegel on the Popes, 522; The Jesuits, 524; Constantine, 528; Blunders in English history, 528; A slander on Pope Adrian I., 529; Other slanders on Benedict XIII., Martin V., and Gregory VII., 530; Blunders upon blunders, 530.

THE PAPAL POWER AND ROMAN FORGERIES. By Very Rev. James A. Corcoran, D.D., ... 532

Dr. Schulte's charges of forgery, 532; Papal power in the early ages, 533; The temporal power, 535; The bishops as saviours of society, 537; Popes Gregory the Great and Zachary, 539; Stephen III. and Pepin, 539; Adrian and Charlemagne, 541; Popes of the sixth and tenth ages, 542; Causes of Protestant hatred, 545; Acts of Roman martyrs, 547; Cardinal Baronius's history, 551; The story of Constantine, 553; Other legends, 554; The "Gesta Liberii," 557; St. Cyprian's work, 559; The "Liber Pontificalis," 561.

THE NUNCIO AND TWO VICARS APOSTOLIC—Adda, Leyburn, and Giffard. By John Charles Earle, B.A., Oxon, ... 577

A scene in Windsor in 1687, 577; The Count of Adda, 579; The Vicars Apostolic, 580; Catholics in England from Elizabeth to James II., 580–585; Dr. Leyburn, 586; Magdalen College, Oxford, 588; The King and the Fellows, 590; Bonaventure Giffard, 592; The revolution of 1688, 593; The Catholics in George I.'s reign, 594; Death and character of Bishop Giffard, 596–598.

POSITIVISM AND EVOLUTION. By X. C. S. P., ... 598

"Modern thought" and its advocates, 598; Bacon, induction, and facts, 599; The philosophy of Auguste Comte, 605; The theorems of Positivism, 606; The Evolutionists and Positivism, 608; The disgust of the former, 610; American and English thought, 613.

A CATHOLIC POET OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY. By D. A. Casserly, 614

William Habington, 614; His oblivion, 615; He becomes known, 617; His ancestors, 618; Hendlip, 619; The Catholic Lords of England, 621; John and Thomas Habington, 624; The Babington plot, 625; The gunpowder plot, 629; The poet's education, 632; His love affair, 633; His prose writing, 637; Charles I.'s reign, 641; The poet's character, 643.

PROFESSOR HUXLEY ON EVOLUTION. By Rev. A. M. Kirsch, C.S.C., . 644

Huxley as a naturalist, 645; His hypotheses on the origin and course of nature, 648; The eternity of nature, 649; The Miltonic theory, 650; St. Augustine's explanation, 651; Evolution, 652; Cuvier's objection, 654; Reptiles and birds, 656; Variation of the horse, 658; Huxley's men of straw, 660; Evolution and the Church, 661; Mivart's views, 662; Evolution and revelation, 664.

HUNTING SITTING BULL. By General John Gibbon, U. S. A., ... 665

On Custer's battlefield, 665; The Little Big Horn, 668; The battlefield, 669; A hideous scene, 672; A difficult march, 673; In camp, 675; A hazardous trip, 676; A drowned camp, 677; News from General Crook, 679; An alarm from the Sioux, 681; "Buffalo Bill," 682; Missed again, 683; On Powder river, 685; The Crows' farewell, 685; A buffalo hunt, 687; No Indians discovered, 689; Difficulties of Indian wars, 690; Their cause, 691; Indian quickness, 694.

THE RELATIONS OF THE CHURCH AND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. By S. B. A. Harper, ... 695

The political philosophy of the day, 695; Declaration of Independence, 697; Ideal civil policy of the Church, 700; The jurisdiction of the Church, 703; The condition of the human race, 705; Contradictory attacks against the Church, 709; Unity of national faith necessary, 711; The Constitution and religion, 712; Evils of a privileged caste, 713: The Church and the poor, 717; Our political evils, 718; Secret societies, 720.

SYRIAC GRAMMARS. By Very Rev. James A. Corcoran, D.D., ... 722

Theseus Ambrosius, 722; He introduces the study of Syriac into Europe, 724; Its importance, 726; Compared with Hebrew, 729; Palfrey's grammar, 730; Dr. Philip's grammar, 735.

BOOK NOTICES.

American State & American Statesmen, The, 171
Aubrey De Vere's "St. Thomas"..... 358
A Popular Life of our Holy Father, Pope Pius IX..... 766

Baltimore, Plenary Council of..... 383
Bibliotheca Symbolica Ecclesiæ Universalis... 746
Biology, with Preludes on Current Events.... 768

Cortes' "Essay on Catholicism," etc..... 178
Cornoldi's Lectures on Philosophy..... 189
Contemporary Evolution, (Mivart)..... 365
Columbus Christopher, Life of..... 374
Creation and Cosmogony, (Appel)..... 380
Church, The, and Gentile World. 575

Darby, John, Hours with..... 376
Darby's Two Thousand Years After..... 381
De Deo Creante, (Mazella's)..... 572

Emerson's "Letters and Social Aims"..... 175
Essay on Philosophy of Literature..... 187
Education, Papers on.. 192
Erin, Transfer of..... 384
Ecclesiastical Law, Elements of..... 571
Elementary Rational Philosophy..... 755
Evidences of Religion..... 759
Essays and Reviews..... 764

Faith of our Fathers. By Bishop Gibbons .. 382

God the Teacher of Mankind..... 758

Harold. By A. Tennyson..... 388
He will Come..... 767

Italian Mass, (McGonigle)..... 573
Introductio in Sacram Scripturam, (Ubaldo Ubaldi)..... 567

Libraries, Public, of the United States..... 368
Life of Our Life..... 373
Light..... 766

Manual of the Confraternity, (McColgan)..... 378
"Marie's" Poems, (Beside the Western Sea,) 571
Marylanders, Distinguished..... 572
Monotheism, Letter from Father Formby on, 575
Mesmerism, Spiritualism, etc..... 750
Miscellanies..... 762
Modern Philosophy..... 768
Monotheism..... 768

New Lands within the Arctic Circle..... 763

Our Faith the Victory..... 768

Peschel's "Races of Man"..... 185
Poems of Places..... 190
Philosophy of the Bible, (O'Brien)..... 379
Pius IX, Brennan's Life of..... 384
Philosophy, History of..... 563
Philosophy, (Dr. Stockl's)..... 563
Pius IX., A Life of..... 765
Pope Pius IX., The Life of..... 767

Roman Litanies..... 383
Repertorium Oratoris Sacri..... 768

Sword that Doth Cut..... 181
Spinoza's Ethics..... 191
Sociology, Herbert Spencer's Principles of.... 565
Saints, Lives of the, (Weninger)..... 569
Shakespeare, from an American View..... 573
Summa Summæ..... 574

Theologia Moralis, (A. Koning's)..... 370
The Suppression of the Society of Jesus in Portuguese Dominions..... 761
Turks and Greeks..... 764
The Age of Anna..... 766
The Logic of Chance..... 768

368
373
766

378
571
572
575
750
762
768
768

763

768

185
190
379
384
563
563
765
767

183
768

181
191
565
569
573
574

370

761
764
766
768